

CLUB ESSE PALMASERA RESORT * Cala Gonone – Sardegna

CLUB ESSE PALMASERA RESORT is one of the first "Club format" Resort in whole Sardinia and still today, thanks to recent renovations, it offers the comfort and breath of a large international resort. Over the years it has been the first stage for some of the most famous comedians of the Italian Variety Shows. It rises close to the sea, in the suggestive setting of Cala Gonone, in a panoramic position on the Gulf of Orosei. Descending from the town of Dorgali along the ancient path that winds its way through unique and breathtaking views of the gulf, the characteristic village of Cala Gonone can be reached, home to the most important fleet of excursion boats in Sardinia. A few miles away by boat you can find the beaches of Cala Mariolu and Cala Goloritze (recently ranked second and third among all the Italian beaches), Cala Luna (the set of numerous movies such as Swept Away) and the cave of Bue Marino, a site of incomparable beauty. Its hinterland makes the area of Cala Gonone special and magical: the Supramonte, where natural monuments of great beauty are hidden, such as Gola di Gorroppu with its walls over 400 meters high (it is the European highest and largest canyon) and the mysterious nuragic village of Tiscali. This mountain area, the realm of moufflons, is one of the hikers' temples for trekking, flora and wildlife. The wide spaces, the equipment and entertainment activities typical of Club Esse, guarantee a dynamic holiday of relaxation and fun.
